

Dear Admissions Committee,

I am writing to express my unwavering interest in the Medical Biotechnologies program at the University of Piemonte Orientale. As a Biotechnology graduate from Addis Ababa Science and Technology University, I am deeply passionate about the potential of biomedicine to advance healthcare and scientific research.

The comprehensive and interdisciplinary curriculum offered by your esteemed institution resonates with my academic and professional aspirations. Here are the reasons why I believe I should be accepted:

1. Solid Foundation: My undergraduate studies equipped me with a strong foundation in biotechnology, molecular biology, and genetics. I am well-versed in laboratory techniques and data analysis.
2. Research Drive: I am driven by curiosity and a desire to explore the frontiers of biomedical science. I have actively engaged in research projects, including investigating genetic markers for disease susceptibility.
3. Global Perspective: Having grown up in Ethiopia, I bring a unique perspective to the classroom. I am excited about the multicultural environment at the University of Piemonte Orientale and look forward to collaborating with peers from diverse backgrounds.
4. Passion for Innovation: I believe that breakthroughs in biomedicine lie at the intersection of creativity and rigorous scientific inquiry. I am committed to contributing to innovative solutions, whether through drug discovery, personalized medicine, or bioinformatics.
5. Effective Communication: As an enthusiastic communicator, I am adept at presenting complex scientific concepts to both experts and non-experts. I value collaboration and believe that effective communication is essential for translating research into real-world impact.
6. Future Impact: My goal is to bridge the gap between bench research and clinical applications. I aspire to work on projects that directly benefit patients and contribute to advancements in healthcare.

In conclusion, I am committed to dedicating myself to academic excellence and interdisciplinary research at the University of Piemonte Orientale. Thank you for considering my application. I eagerly anticipate the opportunity to contribute meaningfully to the academic and research community.

Warm regards,

Halewot Abebe
