

Dear Polytechnic Marche Admissions Committee,

My name is Betelhem Amare, and I am writing to express my keen interest in pursuing a Master's degree in International Economics and Commerce at your esteemed institution. With my academic background in Management from Bonga University and my passion for global economic affairs, I am confident that I possess the necessary skills and drive to excel in your program.

Throughout my undergraduate studies, I developed a strong foundation in economic principles, international business, and global trade. I was particularly fascinated by the interplay between economic policies, market forces, and the complexities of international commerce. The interdisciplinary nature of your Master's program in International Economics and Commerce aligns perfectly with my academic interests and career aspirations.

I am particularly drawn to the program's emphasis on international trade, economic development, and global governance. The opportunity to delve deeper into these areas and gain practical insights from renowned faculty and industry experts is truly compelling. I am eager to contribute to the vibrant intellectual environment at Polytechnic Marche and engage in cutting-edge research that addresses real-world economic challenges.

Beyond my academic qualifications, I am a highly motivated and results-oriented individual with a strong work ethic and a proven ability to succeed in diverse environments. I am fluent in English and Amharic, and I am proficient in French and Italian. This linguistic diversity has enabled me to bridge cultural gaps and build strong relationships with people from different backgrounds.

I am confident that my academic background, passion for international economics, and commitment to personal and professional growth make me an ideal candidate for your program. I am eager to join the Polytechnic Marche community, contribute to its academic excellence, and embark on a transformative journey that will prepare me for a fulfilling career in the field of international economics and commerce.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the opportunity to discuss my qualifications further and demonstrate how I can be a valuable addition to your esteemed institution.

Sincerely,

Betelhem Amare
