

Dear Admission Committee,

I am writing to express my genuine interest in pursuing a Master's degree in Food and Beverage Innovation and Management (FABIAM) at Università Politecnica delle Marche. As a recent graduate with a Bachelor's degree in Biotechnology from Addis Ababa Science and Technology University, my passion lies at the intersection of science, innovation, and sustainable food systems.

Here are my personal motivations for choosing this program:

1. Biotechnology's Transformative Potential: Having studied Biotechnology, I am acutely aware of its transformative power. Biotechnology can revolutionize our approach to food production, making it more efficient, nutritious, and environmentally friendly. I am excited to explore how biotechnological advancements can reshape the food industry.
2. Sustainability and Resilience: FABIAM's focus on sustainability resonates deeply with me. I believe that sustainable practices are not just desirable but essential for the future. By understanding the intricate connections between food production, quality, and environmental impact, I hope to contribute to resilient food systems.
3. Innovation and Quality: The program's emphasis on innovation and quality aligns perfectly with my aspirations. I am eager to engage with cutting-edge research, explore novel food technologies, and contribute to the creation of high-quality food products.
4. Cultural Appreciation: Food is not merely sustenance; it is a cultural expression. FABIAM's promotion of Italian and Mediterranean culinary excellence excites me. I look forward to immersing myself in the rich gastronomic heritage and learning how tradition and innovation intersect.
5. Career Vision: My long-term vision involves bridging scientific knowledge with practical solutions. Whether it's developing sustainable food products, optimizing supply chains, or enhancing food safety, I see myself as an agent of positive change. FABIAM provides the ideal platform for nurturing this vision.

In addition to my academic pursuits, I am committed to collaborative research and lifelong learning. I believe that FABIAM will equip me with the skills, network, and mindset needed to thrive in the dynamic field of food innovation.

Thank you for considering my application. I eagerly anticipate the opportunity to contribute meaningfully to the academic and research community at Università Politecnica delle Marche.

Warm regards,

Halewot Abebe
