

To the Admissions Committee,

I am composing this correspondence to express my profound interest in the Economics course offered at the University of Polytechnic Marche. My name is Nahom Yemane, and it is my fervent aspiration to be part of this esteemed institution in pursuit of my educational advancement and career aspirations.

My educational odyssey has been distinguished by an unwavering emphasis on economics, culminating in remarkable achievements throughout my high school tenure. This pivotal period ignited a lasting fervor for economics, propelling me to delve into the subject matter well beyond the boundaries of the conventional classroom. Devoting my leisure hours to extensive readings and participation in relevant lectures has significantly enriched my grasp of economics. Furthermore, active engagement in economics competitions has finely honed my analytical and critical thinking skills, empowering me to effectively apply theoretical knowledge to practical real-world scenarios.

I am firmly persuaded that enrolling in the study of economics at the University of Polytechnic Marche will provide me with the opportunity to broaden my scope of knowledge and equip me with the indispensable skills essential for catalyzing positive societal transformation.

In conclusion, I am eagerly enthusiastic about the possibility of enrolling in the Economics course at the University of Polytechnic Marche, with a sincere commitment to actively contribute to the institution's academic and social tapestry. I extend my sincere gratitude for the consideration of my application and anxiously await your response.

Warm regards,

Nahom Yemane
