Letter of Recommendation

To whom it may concern

It is my pleasure to write letter of recommendation for Ms. Medihanit Allo whom I have known as my student in undergraduate public health department, Arba Minch University. I have known her for the past four years as she has attached in the clinical courses, community health attachment, Team Training Program (TTP) and research work that I supervise and advise. As instructor/supervisor, I have had an opportunity to observe her participation and interaction in her attachment to evaluate Ms. Medihanit Allo Knowledge and skill of the clinical and public matter. She is an enthusiastic, energetic, extra ordinary and exceptionally well organized student in all aspects.

She is not only an excellent student, but also she is personally delight full, excellent communication skill, leadership qualities and character is exemplary. She is highly intelligent, works hard as a team member and demonstrated leadership potential. In general, she has shown highly appreciable intellectual curiosity and dealt with complex matters effectively and she is dynamic to suit the prevailing situation. I have no doubt that she has the skills, knowledge, and experiences will make the best professional in area of public health.

In view of her overall quality, vision, academic and research capacity and good interpersonal communication skill, I wholeheartedly recommend Ms. Medihanit Allo for any responsibility in the field of public health. It is clear to me as I hope it is to you that this young women is an exceptional candidate, one that would contribute greatly to any program. I wholeheartedly recommend her and wish her the very best in all future, I give her my highest recommendation.

Sincerely,

Zeleke Girma Abate (MPH, Assistant Professor of Epidemiology & Biostatistics)
