

Dear Members of the Admission Committee,

I am writing to express my profound interest in enrolling in the Master's program in International Economics and Commerce at Polytechnic Marche. With a degree in Computer Science from Kotebe University, I am inspired to transition my expertise into the dynamic realm of global economics and commerce, seeking to bridge the gap between technology and international trade. My academic background has instilled in me a strong foundation in analytical thinking and problem-solving, which I aim to merge with a comprehensive understanding of global economics and trade dynamics offered by the esteemed program at Polytechnic Marche.

During my studies, I have acquired a robust understanding of technological systems and their applications to real-world challenges. This skill set, coupled with a genuine interest in the international business landscape, propels my desire to delve deep into the nuanced world of international economics and commerce. The interdisciplinary nature of the program at Polytechnic Marche resonates deeply with my aspirations, and I am confident that the rich academic offerings at your esteemed institution will provide an ideal platform for me to meld my technological acumen with the intricate nuances of global commerce, leading to the emergence of innovative solutions and strategic insights that contribute to the improvement of international trade dynamics.

In addition to my academic pursuits, I am drawn to the prospect of engaging with the renowned faculty members and a diverse student body at Polytechnic Marche. I am eager to immerse myself in insightful discussions, collaborative research endeavors, and experiential learning opportunities that are hallmarks of your academic environment. By enrolling in the program, I am excited about the potential to contribute meaningfully to the discourse on international economics while also expanding my understanding of global trade strategies, economic policy, and the broader impact on international markets.

I am genuinely enthusiastic about the prospect of joining the university's academic community, and I am committed to dedicating myself wholeheartedly to my academic pursuits at Polytechnic Marche. Thank you for considering my application, and I am genuinely looking forward to the opportunity to contribute positively to the academic and research community at Polytechnic Marche.

Warm regards,

Petros Asmare
