ABOUT ME

I am driven by a fervent commitment to academic excellence and a love for learning in diverse environments, I tackle my studies with diligence, curiosity, and a proactive mindset. Recent graduate of Bonga University with a Bachelor's degree in Management. Seeking to leverage my strong academic foundation in economic principles, international business, and global trade in a challenging and rewarding role in the field of international economics and commerce. Proven ability to succeed in diverse environments, coupled with fluency in English and Amharic enables me to bridge cultural gaps and build strong relationships with people from different backgrounds. Eager to contribute to the success of an organization while continuing to develop my knowledge and skills in international economic affairs.
