

Dear Admissions Committee,

I am writing to express the genuine interest of Tigist Mitiku in pursuing a Master's in International Economics at the University of Polytechnic Marche. With a strong academic background, coupled with a fervor for understanding global economic dynamics, Tigist is eager to contribute to and benefit from the esteemed academic environment your institution offers.

Having graduated with distinction, Tigist possesses a solid foundation in economics and has nurtured a deep passion for the subject. Engaging in extensive self-study and actively participating in economics competitions, Tigist has honed analytical and critical thinking skills, demonstrating a commitment to academic excellence.

The desire to broaden perspectives and contribute to global economic discourse has driven Tigist to seek immersion in international economics. Tigist is confident that enrolling in the International Economics program at the University of Polytechnic Marche will not only deepen her understanding of the subject but also equip her with the necessary skills to make a significant impact on the international stage.

In conclusion, Tigist is enthusiastic about contributing to the academic and social communities at your university through the International Economics program. We appreciate your consideration of Tigist's application and anticipate the opportunity to be a part of your esteemed institution.

Warm regards,
