TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

I am pleased to recommend Yohannes Desalegn Bireda, who is applying for admission in your educational institution. As the director of his school, I can say I know him very well both academically and personally. He has an all rounded personality. He is one of the top of his class and is a wonderful student we have in our school. He has always been an eager participant in difficult co-curricular activities of the school and takes his work very seriously.

Yohannes is a highly motivated student and has performed to a high level both academically and in terms of his attitude, plus behaviour. He is highly regarded both by his peers and by the academic and administration staff. His contribution to group work activities showed a high degree of ability in team work.

Lideta catholic cathedral school prides itself on teaching its students good values and study methods. Many of our former students have gone on to successful colleges and universities in Europe, USA and many other countries. I have mentioned this to show that Yohannes Desalegn comes from a solid base and background and will not disappoint. In fact he will be a major asset to any institution which welcomes him in their midst.

Please do not hesitate to contact me, if you require any further clarification on a point. @abbatekle@gmail.com

Tekle Mekonnen
