

Dear Admissions Committee,

I am writing to convey my deep interest in the Economics course at the University of Polytechnic Marche. My name is Liban Ibrahim, and I am eager to become a part of this esteemed institution to advance my education and pursue my career aspirations.

My academic journey has been marked by a strong focus on economics, culminating in outstanding achievements during my high school education. This period ignited a lasting passion for economics, propelling me to immerse myself in the subject matter beyond the confines of the classroom. I have dedicated my free time to extensive reading and attending relevant lectures, further enriching my understanding of economics. Additionally, active participation in economics competitions has honed my analytical and critical thinking abilities, allowing me to apply theoretical knowledge to real-world scenarios.

I am convinced that pursuing economics at the University of Polytechnic Marche will afford me the opportunity to broaden my knowledge base and equip me with the essential skills to effect positive change in society.

In conclusion, I am enthusiastic about the prospect of joining the Economics course at the University of Polytechnic Marche and actively contributing to the academic and social fabric of the institution. I am grateful for your consideration of my application and eagerly anticipate your response.

Sincerely,

Liban Ibrahim
