To whom it may concern

Joel Tefera Fekede has been my student from the year 2012E.C to 2013E.C in Cruise school. During his stay in the school, Joel has been known for his various outstanding qualities. To mention some, he has always been actively participated in the school's English club and presented different interesting and helpful articles through it. In addition to this Joel is the most cooperative student who always likes to work with others by engaging himself in different reading and discussion clubs. Last but not least I will always remember Joel for his peak performance. He has always been first to none in his English language examination results. Therefore, I am confident to recommend him to go through any other higher learning institution outside of Ethiopia for his next level of education.

Sincerely
